PAPUA- In the serene village of Gigobak, Sinak District, a heartwarming moment unfolded on Sunday (23/03/2025). The R-PNG Mobile Border Security Task Force Yonif 700/WYC, led by Danpos Sinak Bandara Lettu Inf Karel, arrived not only as protectors but as messengers of unity and faith.

Carrying Bibles as gifts, these soldiers came with a mission beyond security—to spread love, strengthen faith, and deepen the bonds of brotherhood with the local community.

"We are not just here as border guards, but as brothers," said Lettu Inf Karel with a warm smile. "We hope these Bibles bring strength and inspiration to the people of Gigobak in their journey of faith."

A Gesture of Love Welcomed with Open Arms

The arrival of the soldiers was met with genuine warmth and gratitude. Mr. Pelek, a local priest, along with the village representatives, expressed their heartfelt appreciation.

"We feel truly blessed by the presence of the TNI soldiers here," said Mr. Pelek, his eyes glistening with emotion. "May God always protect you, keep you safe, and grant you strength in your duties until you return to your families."

TNI: A Guardian, A Partner, A Brother

The Commander of Koops Habema, Major General TNI Lucky Avianto, emphasized that this initiative is a testament to the TNI's unwavering commitment to the people of Papua.

"This is more than just distributing Bibles—it's about building trust, fostering harmony, and promoting religious tolerance," he stated. "The TNI is here not only to safeguard, but to stand with the people, to walk alongside them in creating a better future."

"We hope that these Bibles serve as a beacon of peace and happiness for the people of Gigobak. By embracing and respecting each other's differences, we can build a stronger, more unified Papua," he added.

Planting Seeds of Kindness for a Brighter Future

In the heart of Papua's breathtaking landscape, TNI soldiers continue to sow the seeds of love and unity—seeds that will grow into stronger faith, deeper bonds, and a more harmonious community. This story is not just about a simple act of giving; it is about the power of kindness, the strength of faith, and the unbreakable ties of brotherhood.
