A Mission of Care and Commitment

The Gome Post became the center of attention—not for conflict, but for its warmth and brotherhood. The soldiers of Task Force Yonif 700/Wyc actively reached out to residents, conducting health check-ups, distributing medicines, and offering heartfelt smiles.

"Our presence here is not just about securing the border, but also about addressing the community's needs, especially in health care," said First Lieutenant Inf Na'im Aryo, Dan Pos Gome. "We take the initiative to visit villages, check on residents' health, and provide vitamins and medicine to those in need."

Beyond the statistics and medical reports, there are real-life struggles—stories of villagers who lack access to healthcare due to the region's challenging terrain. Task Force Yonif 700/Wyc stands as a bridge to better medical care, offering first aid, treatment, and health education to empower the people of Gome.

Empowering Communities for a Healthier Future

Beyond providing medical assistance, the soldiers also educate the community on:

Healthy living habits
Environmental hygiene
Disease prevention

"We want to ensure that people in remote areas receive proper health services," said Lieutenant Inf Na'im Aryo. "More than that, we aim to instill awareness about healthy lifestyles so they can take charge of their well-being."

This initiative is not just about healing the sick, but also about equipping the people with knowledge, ensuring that they can sustain their health and improve their quality of life.

A Testament to TNI's Dedication

Pangkoops Habema Major General TNI Lucky Avianto emphasized that the TNI's presence in Papua extends beyond security duties—it's about bringing real benefits to the people.

"In addition to providing a sense of security, the TNI also brings hope, love, and a healthier future for the Papuan people," he said.

With dedication and compassion, Task Force Yonif 700/Wyc continues to prove that their mission is not just to guard borders, but to build trust, nurture hope, and improve lives in Papua.
